- (a) the Patron, the Chancellor, the Vice-Chancellor, the Senate, the Deans, the Registrar and the Directors;
- (b) the members of the Senate, Academic Council, Committees and other bodies as the Senate may establish;
- (c) the teachers and students of the Institute and its constituent units; and
- (d) such other full-time officers and members of the staff as the Senate may, from time to time, specify.

(2) The Institute shall be a body corporate by the name of the Pakistan Institute of Development Economics, Islamabad, having perpetual succession and a common seal, and may sue and be sued by the said name.

(3) The Institute shall be competent to acquire and hold property, both movable and immovable, and to lease, sell or otherwise transfer any movable and immovable property which may have become vested in or been acquired by it.

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force, the Institute shall have academic, financial and administrative autonomy, including the power to employ officers, teachers and other employees on such terms as may be prescribed, subject to the provision of this Ordinance and the Higher Education Commission Ordinance, 2002 (LIII of 2002). In particular, and without prejudice to the authority granted to the Commission by law, the Federal Government or an authority or auditor appointed by the Federal Government shall have no power to question the policy underlying the allocation of resources approved by the Senate in the annual budget of the Institute.

(5) All properties, rights and interests of whatever kind, used, enjoyed, possessed, owned or vested in, or held in trust by and liabilities legally subsisting against the Institute in existence immediately before the commencement of this Ordinance shall pass to the Institute reconstituted under this Ordinance.

(6) The principal seat of the Institute shall be at Islamabad and it may set up its campuses, colleges, Institutes, offices, research study centres and other facilities at such places in Pakistan as Senate may determine. The additional campuses shall be set in other parts of Pakistan only after their evaluation by the Higher Education Commission to determine whether they meet the eligibility criteria fixed by the Higher Education Commission.

4. Powers and Purposes of the Institute.—The Institute shall have the following powers, namely:-

- (i) to provide for education and scholarship in such branches of knowledge as it may deem fit, and to make provision for research, service to society and for the application, advancement and dissemination of knowledge in such manner as it may determine;
- (ii) to prescribe courses of studies to be conducted by it and the colleges;
- (iii) to hold examinations and to award and confer degrees, diplomas, certificates and other academic distinctions to and on persons who have been admitted to and have passed its examinations under prescribed conditions;
- (iv) to prescribe the terms and conditions of employment of the officers, teachers and other employees of the Institute and to lay down terms and conditions that may be different from those applicable to government servants in general;
- (v) to engage, where necessary, persons on contracts of specified duration and to specify the terms of each engagement;
- (vi) to confer honorary degrees or other distinctions on approved persons in the manner prescribed;
- (vii) to provide for such instruction for persons not being students of the Institute as it may prescribe, and to grant certificates and diplomas to such persons;
- (viii) to Institute programmes for the exchange of students and teachers between the Institute and other universities, educational institutions and research organisations, inside as well as outside Pakistan;
- (ix) to provide career counselling and job search services to students and alumni;
- (x) to maintain linkages with alumni;

- (xi) to develop and implement fund-raising plans;
- (xii) to provide and support the academic development of the faculty of the Institute;
- (xiii) to confer degrees on persons who have carried on independent research under prescribed conditions;
- (xiv) to affiliate and disaffiliate educational institutions under prescribed conditions;
- (xv) to inspect colleges and other educational institutions affiliated or seeking affiliation with it;
- (xvi) to accept the examinations passed and the period of study spent by students of the Institute at other universities and places of learning equivalent to such examinations and periods of study in the Institute, as it may prescribe, and to withdraw such acceptance;
- (xvii) to co-operate with other Universities, public authorities or private organisations, inside as well as outside Pakistan, in such manner and for such purposes as it may prescribe;
- (xviii) to institute Professorships, Associate Professorships, Assistant Professorships and Lectureships and any other posts and to appoint persons thereto;
- (xix) to create posts for research, extension, administration and other related purposes and to appoint persons thereto;
- (xx) to recognize selected members of the teaching staff of affiliated colleges or educational institutions admitted, to the privileges of the Institute or such other persons as it may deem fit, as Institute teachers;
- (xxi) to institute and award financial assistance to students in need, fellowships, scholarships, bursaries, medals and prizes under prescribed conditions;
- (xxii) to establish teaching departments, schools, colleges, faculties, institutes, museums and other centres of learning for the development of teaching and research and to make such arrangements for their maintenance, management and administration as it may prescribe;

- (xxiii) to provide for the residence of the students of the Institute, to institute and maintain halls of residence and to approve or license hostels and lodging;
- (xxiv) to maintain order, discipline and security on the campuses of the Institute;
- (xxv) to promote the extra curricular and recreational activities of such students, and to make arrangements for promoting their health and general welfare;
- (xxvi) to demand and receive such fees and other charges as it may determine;
- (xxvii) to make provision for research, advisory or consultancy services and with these objects to enter into arrangements with other institutions, public or private bodies, commercial and industrial enterprises under prescribed conditions;
- (xxviii) to enter into, carry out, vary or cancel contracts;
- (xxix) to receive and manage property transferred and grants, contributions made to the Institute and to invest any fund representing such property, grants, bequests, trusts, gifts, donations, endowments or contributions in such manner as it may deem fit;
- (xxx) to provide for the printing and publication of research and other works; and
- (xxxi) to do all such other acts and things, whether incidental to the powers aforesaid or not, as may be requisite or expedient in order to further the objectives of the Institute as a place of education, learning, and research.

5. Institute open to all classes, creeds, etc.—(1) The Institute shall be open to all persons of either sex of whatever, religion, race, creed, colour or domicile who are academically qualified for admission to the courses of study offered by the Institute, and no such person shall be denied the privilege on the ground only of sex, religion, creed, race, class, colour or domicile.

(2) An increase in any fee or charge that is in excess of ten percent per annum on an annualised basis from the last such increase may not be made except in special circumstances, and only with the approval of the Chancellor.

(3) The Institute shall institute financial aid programmes for students in need, to the extent considered feasible by the Senate given the resources available, so as to enable admission and access to the Institute and the various opportunities provided by it to be based on merit rather than ability to pay:

Provided that the Institute may institute self-finance schemes not covering more than ten percent of the total number of candidates in any on campus taught course or research-based programme of study.

6. Teaching and Examination at the Institute.— (1) All recognized teachings in various courses shall be conducted by the Institute in the prescribed manner and may include lectures, tutorials, discussions, seminars, demonstrations, distance learning and other methods of instruction as well as practical work in governmental or private organizations.

(2) The authority responsible for organizing recognized teaching shall be such as may be prescribed.

(3) The academic programmes of the Institute shall be conducted in the prescribed manner.

(4) The Institute shall associate external examiners for the conduct of examination.

(5) In the prescribing syllabi, courses of studies and instructions for the conduct of studies, the Institute shall abide by the directions given by the Higher Education Commission under the Higher Education Commission Ordinance 2002 (LIII of 2002) for Federal supervision of curricula, textbooks, and maintenance of standards of education.

CHAPTER III

OFFICERS OF THE INSTITUTE

7. Principal Officers.— The following shall be the principal officers of the Institute, namely:—

- (a) the Patron;
- (b) the Chancellor;
- (c) the Vice-Chancellor;
- (d) the Deans;
- (e) the Directors of constituent campuses;

- (f) the Principals of the constituent colleges;
- (g) the Registrar;
- (h) the Treasurer;
- (i) the Controller of Examinations; and
- (j) such other persons as may be prescribed by the Statutes or Regulations to be the principal officers of the Institute.

8. Patron.—(1) The President of the Islamic Republic of Pakistan shall be the Patron of the Institute.

(2) The Patron, or in his absence, the Chancellor shall preside at the convocation of the Institute.

(3) Every proposal to confer an honorary degree shall be subject to confirmation by the Patron.

(4) The Patron, may cause an inspection or inquiry to be made in respect of any matter connected with the affairs of the Institute and shall, from time to time, direct any person or persons as he may deem fit to inquire into or carry out inspection of such matters as may be specified by him.

(5) The Patron shall communicate to the Senate his views with regard to the result of visitation and shall, after ascertaining the views of the Senate, advise the Senate on the actions to be taken by it.

(6) The Senate shall, within such time as may be specified by the Patron, communicate to him such action, if any, as has been taken or may be proposed to be taken upon the result of visitation.

(7) Where the Senate does not, within the time specified, take action to the satisfaction of the Patron, the Patron may issue such directions as he deems fit and the Senate shall comply with all such directions.

9. Chancellor.—(1) The Deputy Chairman. Planning Commission shall be the Chancellor of the Institute and the Chairperson of the Senate.

(2) The members of the Senate as well as the Vice-Chancellor shall be appointed by the Chancellor from amongst the persons recommended by a Search Committee set up for this purpose.

(3) If the Chancellor is satisfied that serious irregularity or mismanagement with respect to the affairs of the Institute has occurred, he may, —

- (a) as regards proceedings of the Senate, direct that specified proceedings be reconsidered and appropriate action taken within one month of the direction having been issued:

Provided that if the Chancellor is satisfied that either no reconsideration has been carried out or that the reconsideration has failed to address the concern expressed he may, after calling upon the Senate to show cause in writing, appoint a five member Review Panel to examine and report to the Chancellor on the functioning of the Senate. The report of the Review Panel shall be submitted within such time as may be prescribed by the Chancellor. The Review Panel shall be drawn from persons of eminence in academics and in the fields of law, accountancy and administration; and

- (b) as regards proceedings of any Authority or with respect to matters within the competence of any Authority other than the Senate, direct the Senate to exercise powers under section 18.

10. Removal from the Senate:—(1) The Chancellor may upon the recommendation of the Review Panel, remove any person from the membership of the Senate on the ground that such person —

- (a) has become of unsound mind;
- (b) has become incapacitated to function as member of the Senate;
- (c) has been convicted by a court of law for an offence involving moral turpitude;
- (d) has absented himself from two consecutive meetings without just cause; or
- (e) has been guilty of misconduct, including use of position for personal advantage of any kind, or gross inefficiency in the performance of functions.

(2) The Chancellor shall remove any person from the membership of the Senate on a resolution calling for the removal of such person supported by at least three-fourths of the membership of the Senate:

Provided that before passing such resolution the Senate shall provide the member concerned a fair hearing:

Provided further that the provisions of this section shall not be applicable to the Vice-Chancellor in his capacity as a member of the Senate.

11. Vice-Chancellor.—(1) There shall be a Vice-Chancellor of the Institute who shall be an eminent academic or a distinguished administrator and shall be appointed on such terms and conditions as may be prescribed.

(2) The Vice-Chancellor shall be the chief executive officer of the Institute responsible for all administrative and academic functions of the Institute and for ensuring that the provisions of this Ordinance, Statutes, Regulations and Rules are faithfully observed in order to promote the general efficiency and good order of the Institute. The Vice-Chancellor shall have all powers prescribed for this purpose, including administrative control over the officers, teachers and other employees of the Institute.

(3) The Vice-Chancellor shall, if present, be entitled to attend any meeting of any Authority or body of the Institute.

(4) The Vice-Chancellor may, in an emergency that in his opinion requires immediate action ordinarily not in the competence of the Vice-Chancellor, take such action and forward, within seventy-two hours, a report of the action taken to the members of the Emergency Committee of the Senate, to be set up by Statute. The Emergency Committee may direct such further action as is considered appropriate.

(5) The Vice-Chancellor shall also have the following powers, namely:—

- (a) to direct teachers, officers and other employees of the Institute to take up such assignments in connection with examination, administration and such other activities in the Institute as he may consider necessary for the purposes of the Institute;
- (b) to sanction by re-appropriation an amount not exceeding an amount prescribed by the Senate for an unforeseen item not provided for in the budget and report it to the Senate at the next meeting;
- (c) to make appointments of such categories of employees of the Institute and in such manner as may be prescribed by the Statutes;
- (d) to suspend, punish and remove, in accordance with prescribed procedure, from service officers, teachers and other employees of the Institute except those appointed by or with the approval of the Senate;

- (e) to delegate, subject to such conditions as may be prescribed, any of his powers under this Ordinance to an officer or officers of the Institute; and
- (f) to exercise and perform such other powers and functions as may be prescribed.

(6) The Vice-Chancellor shall present an annual report before the Senate within three months of the close of the academic year. The annual report shall present such information as regards the academic year under review as may be prescribed, including disclosure of all relevant facts pertaining to—

- (a) academics;
- (b) research;
- (c) administration; and
- (d) finances.

(7) The Vice-Chancellor's annual report shall be made available, prior to its presentation before the Senate, to all officers and Institute teachers and shall be published in such numbers as are required to ensure its wide circulation.

12. Appointment and Removal of the Vice-Chancellor.—(1) The Vice-Chancellor shall be appointed by the Chancellor on the recommendations of the Senate.

(2) A Search Committee for the recommendation of persons suitable for appointment as Vice-Chancellor shall be constituted by the Senate on the date and in the manner prescribed by the Statutes and shall consist of two eminent members from academicians of high repute and experience nominated by the Chancellor, of whom one shall be appointed the Convener, two members of the Senate, two distinguished Institute Teachers who are not members of the Senate and one academic of eminence, not employed by the Institute. The two distinguished Institute Teachers shall be selected by the Senate through a process, to be prescribed by Statute, that provides for the recommendation of suitable names by the Institute Teachers in general. The Search Committee shall remain in existence till such time that the appointment of the next Vice-Chancellor is made by the Chancellor.

(3) The persons proposed by the Search Committee for appointment as Vice-Chancellor shall be considered by the Senate and of these a panel of three, in order of priority, shall be recommended by the Senate to the Chancellor:

Provided that the Chancellor may decline to appoint any of the three persons recommended and seek recommendation of a fresh panel. In the event of a fresh recommendation being sought by the Chancellor the Search Committee shall make a proposal to the Senate in the prescribed manner.

(4) The Vice-Chancellor shall be appointed for a renewable tenure of five years on terms and conditions prescribed by Statutes. The tenure of an incumbent Vice-Chancellor shall be renewed by the Chancellor on receipt of a resolution of the Senate in support of such renewal:

Provided that the Chancellor may call upon the Senate to reconsider such resolution once.

(5) The Senate may, pursuant to a resolution in this behalf passed by three-fourths of its membership, recommend to the Chancellor the removal of the Vice-Chancellor on the ground of inefficiency, moral turpitude or physical or mental incapacity or gross misconduct, including misuse of position for personal advantage of any kind:

Provided that the Chancellor may make a reference to the Senate stating the instances of inefficiency, moral turpitude or physical or mental incapacity or gross misconduct on the part of the Vice-Chancellor that have come to his notice. After consideration of the reference the Senate may, pursuant to a resolution in this behalf passed by two-thirds of its membership, recommend to the Chancellor the removal of the Vice-Chancellor:

Provided further that prior to a resolution for the removal of the Vice-Chancellor being voted upon the Vice-Chancellor shall be given an opportunity of being heard.

(6) A resolution recommending the removal of the Vice-Chancellor shall be submitted to the Chancellor forthwith. The Chancellor may accept the recommendation and order removal of the Vice-Chancellor or return the recommendation to the Senate.

(7) At any time when the office of the Vice-Chancellor is vacant, or the Vice-Chancellor is absent or is unable to perform the functions of his office due to illness or some other cause, the Senate shall make such arrangements for the performance of the duties of the Vice-Chancellor as it may deem fit.

13. Registrar.—(1) There shall be a Registrar of the Institute to be appointed by the Senate, on the recommendation of the Vice-Chancellor, on such terms and conditions as may be prescribed.

(2) The experience as well as the professional and academic qualifications necessary for appointment to the post of the Registrar shall be as may be prescribed.

(3) The Registrar shall be a full-time officer of the Institute and shall,—

- (a) be the administrative head of the secretariat of the Institute and be responsible for the provision of secretariat support to the Authorities of the Institute;
- (b) be the custodian of the common seal and the academic records of the Institute;
- (c) maintain a register of registered graduates in the prescribed manner;
- (d) supervise the process of election, appointment or nomination of members to the various authorities and other bodies in the prescribed manner;
- (e) perform such other duties as may be prescribed; and

(4) The term of office of the Registrar shall be a renewable period of three years:

Provided that the Senate may, on the advice of the Vice-Chancellor, terminate the appointment of the Registrar on grounds of inefficiency or misconduct in accordance with prescribed procedure.

14. Treasurer.—(1) There shall be a Treasurer of the Institute to be appointed by the Senate, on the recommendation of the Vice-Chancellor, on such terms and conditions as may be prescribed.

(2) The experience and the professional and academic qualifications necessary for appointment to the post of the Treasurer shall be such as may be prescribed.

(3) The Treasurer shall be the chief financial officer of the Institute and shall,—

- (a) manage the assets, liabilities, receipts, expenditures, funds and investments of the Institute;
- (b) prepare the annual and revised budget estimates of the Institute and present them to the Syndicate or a committee thereof for approval and incorporation in the budget to be presented to the Senate;
- (c) ensure that the funds of the Institute are expended on the purposes for which they are provided;

(d) have the accounts of the Institute audited annually so as to be available for submission to the Senate within six months of the close of the financial year;

(e) perform such other duties as may be prescribed; and

(4) The term of office of the Treasurer shall be a renewable period of three years:

Provided that the Senate may, on the advice of the Vice-Chancellor, terminate the appointment of the Treasurer on grounds of inefficiency or misconduct in accordance with prescribed procedure.

15. Controller of Examinations.—(1) There shall be a Controller of Examinations, to be appointed by the Senate, on the recommendation of the Vice-Chancellor, on such terms and conditions as may be prescribed.

(2) The minimum qualifications necessary for appointment to the post of the Controller of Examinations shall be such as may be prescribed.

(3) The Controller of Examinations shall be a full-time officer of the Institute and shall be responsible for all matters connected with the conduct of examinations and perform such other duties as may be prescribed.

(4) The Controller of Examinations shall be appointed for a renewable term of three years:

Provided that the Senate may, on the advice of the Vice-Chancellor, terminate the appointment of the Controller of Examinations on grounds of inefficiency or misconduct in accordance with prescribed procedure.

CHAPTER IV

AUTHORITIES OF THE INSTITUTE

16. Authorities.—(1) The following shall be the Authorities of the Institute, namely:—

(a) Authorities established by this Ordinance,—

- (i) the Senate;
- (ii) the Syndicate; and

- (vii) Departmental Council.

(2) The Senate, the Syndicate and the Academic Council may set up such other committees or sub-committees, by whatever name described, as are considered desirable through Statutes or Regulations as appropriate. Such committees or sub-committees shall be Authorities of the Institute for the purposes of this Ordinance.

17. Senate.—(1) The body responsible for the governance of the Institute shall be described as the Senate, and shall consist of the following, namely:—

- (a) the Chancellor who shall be the Chairperson of the Senate;
- (b) the Secretary, Planning and Development Division;
- (c) the Secretary, Ministry of Education;
- (d) the Vice-Chancellor;
- (e) one member of the Government not below the rank of Additional Secretary from the Planning and Development Division;
- (f) four persons from civil society being persons of distinction in the fields of administration, management, education, academics, agriculture, and economics such that the appointment of these persons reflects a balance across the various fields;

Provided that the special focus or affiliation of the Institute, to be declared in the manner prescribed, may be reflected in the number of persons of distinction in an area of expertise relevant to the Institute who are appointed to the Senate;

- (g) one person from amongst the alumni of the Institute;
- (h) two persons from the academic community of the country, other than an employee of the Institute, at the level of professor or principal of a college;
- (i) four Institute Teachers; and
- (j) one person nominated by the Higher Education Commission.

(2) The numbers of the members of the Senate described against clauses (g) to (j) of sub-section (1) may be increased by the Senate through Statutes subject to condition that the total membership of the Senate does not exceed twenty-one, with a maximum of five Institute Teachers, and the increase is balanced, to the extent possible, across the different categories specified in sub-section (1).

(3) All appointments to the Senate shall be made by the Chancellor. Appointments of persons described in clauses (g) to (h) of sub-section (1) shall be made from amongst a panel of three names for each vacancy recommended by the Representation Committee set up in terms of section 24 and in accordance with procedure as may be prescribed:

Provided that effort shall be made, without compromising on quality or qualification, to give fair representation to women on the Senate:

Provided further that as regards the Institute Teachers described in clause (i) of sub-section (1) the Senate shall prescribe a procedure for appointment on the basis of elections that provide for voting by the various categories of Institute Teachers:

Provided also that the Senate may alternatively prescribe that appointment of Institute Teachers to the Senate shall also be in the manner provided by this sub-section for the persons described in clauses (g) to (h) of sub-section (1).

(4) Members of the Senate, other than ex officio members, shall hold office for three years. One-third of the members, other than ex officio members, of the first restructured Senate, to be determined by lot, shall retire from office on the expiration of one year from the date of appointment by the Chancellor.

One-half of the remaining members, other than ex officio members, of the first restructured Senate, to be determined by lot, shall retire from office on the expiration of two years from the date of appointment and the remaining one-half, other than ex officio members, shall retire from office on the expiration of the third year:

Provided that no person, other than an ex officio member, may serve on the Senate for more than two consecutive terms:

Provided further that the Institute Teachers appointed to the Senate may not serve for two consecutive terms.

(5) The Senate shall meet at least twice in a calendar year.

(6) Service on the Senate shall be on honourary basis:

Provided that actual expenses may be reimbursed as prescribed.

(7) The Registrar shall be the Secretary of the Senate.

(8) In the absence of the Chancellor meetings of the Senate shall be presided over by such member, not being an employee of the Institute or the Federal Government, as the Chancellor may, from time to time, nominate. The member so nominated shall be the convener of the Senate.

(9) Unless otherwise prescribed by this Ordinance, all decisions of the Senate shall be taken on the basis of the opinion of a majority of the members present. In the event of the members being evenly divided on any matter the person presiding over the meeting shall have a casting vote.

(10) The quorum for a meeting of the Senate shall be two-thirds of its membership, a fraction being counted as one.

18. Powers and functions of the Senate.—(1) The Senate shall have the power of general supervision over the Institute and shall hold the Vice-Chancellor and the Authorities accountable for all the functions of the Institute. The Senate shall have all powers of the Institute not expressly vested in an Authority or officer by this Ordinance and all other powers not expressly conferred by this Ordinance that are necessary for the performance of its functions.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing powers, the Senate shall have the following powers namely:—

(a) to approve the proposed annual plan of work, the annual and revised budgets, the annual report and the annual statement of account;

Ord. XXXIX

- (b) to hold, control and lay down policy for the administration of the property, funds and investments of the Institute, including the approval of the sale and purchase or acquisition of immovable property;
- (c) to oversee the quality and relevance of the Institute's academic programmes and to review the academic affairs of the Institute in General;
- (d) to approve the appointment of the Deans, Professors, Associate Professors and such other senior faculty and senior administrators as may be prescribed;
- (e) to institute schemes, directions and guidelines for the terms and conditions of appointment of all officers, teachers and other employees of the Institute;
- (f) to approve strategic plans;
- (g) to approve financial resource development plans of the Institute;
- (h) to consider the drafts of Statutes and Regulations proposed by the Syndicate and the Academic Council and deal with them in the manner as provided for in sections 26 and 27, as the case may be:

Provided that the Senate may frame a Statute or Regulation on its own initiative and approve it after calling for the advice of the Syndicate or the Academic Council as the case may be;

- (i) to annul by order in writing the proceedings of any Authority or officer if the Senate is satisfied that such proceedings are not in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance, Statutes or Regulations after calling upon such Authority or officer to show cause why such proceedings should not be annulled;
- (j) to recommend to the Chancellor removal of any member of the Senate in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance;
- (k) to make appointment of members of the Syndicate, other than ex officio members, in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance;
- (l) to make appointment of members of the Academic Council, other than ex officio members, in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance;

- (m) to appoint Emeritus Professors on such terms and conditions as may be prescribed;
- (n) to remove any person from the membership of any Authority if such person:—
 - (i) has become of unsound mind; or
 - (ii) has become incapacitated to function as member of such Authority; or
 - (iii) has been convicted by a court of law for an offence involving moral turpitude; and
- (o) to determine the form, provide for the custody and regulate the use of the common seal of the Institute.

(3) The Senate may, subject to the provisions of this Ordinance delegate all or any of the powers and functions of any Authority, officer or employee of the Institute at its main campus, to any Authority, committee, officer or employee at its additional campus for the purpose of exercising such powers and performing such functions in relation to such additional campus, and for this purpose the Senate may create new posts or positions at the additional campus.

19. Visitation.—The Senate may, in accordance with the terms and procedures as may be prescribed, cause an inspection to be made in respect of any matter connected with the Institute.

20. Syndicate.—(1) There shall be a Syndicate of the Institute consisting of the following:—

- (a) the Vice-Chancellor who shall be its Chairperson;
- (b) the Deans of the Faculties of the Institute;
- (c) three professors from different departments, who are not members of the Senate, to be elected by the Institute Teachers in accordance with procedure to be prescribed by the Senate;
- (d) the Registrar;
- (e) the Treasure; and
- (f) the Controller of Examinations.

(2) Members of the Syndicate, other than ex officio members, shall hold office for a period of three years.

(3) As regards the three professors described in clause (c) of sub-section (1) the Senate may, as an alternative to elections, prescribe a procedure for proposal of a panel of names by the Representation Committee set up in terms of section 24. Appointment of persons proposed by the Representation Committee may be made by the Senate on the recommendation of the Vice-Chancellor.

(4) The quorum for a meeting of the Syndicate shall be one-half of the total number of members, a fraction being counted as one.

(5) The Syndicate shall meet at least once in each quarter of the year.

21. Powers and duties of the Syndicate.—(1) The Syndicate shall be the executive body of the Institute and shall, subject to the provisions of this Ordinance and the Statutes, exercise general supervision over the affairs and management of the Institute.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality, of the foregoing powers, and subject to the provisions of this Ordinance, the Statutes and directions of the Senate the Syndicate shall have the following powers, namely:—

- (a) to consider the annual report, the annual and revised budget estimates and to submit these to the Senate;

(2) Regulations shall be proposed by the Academic Council and shall be submitted to the Senate which may approve them or withhold approval or refer them back to the Academic Council for reconsideration. A Regulation proposed by the Academic Council shall not be effective unless it receives the approval of the Senate.

(3) Regulations regarding or incidental to matters contained in sub-clauses (g) and (i) shall not be submitted to the Senate without the prior approval of the Syndicate.

28. Amendment and Repeal of Statutes and Regulations.— The procedure for adding to, amending or repealing the Statutes and the Regulations shall be the same as that prescribed respectively for framing or making Statutes and Regulations.

29. Rules.—(1) The Authorities and the other bodies of the Institute may make Rules, to be published in the official Gazette, consistent with this Ordinance, Statutes or the Regulations, to regulate any matter relating to the affairs of the Institute which has not been provided for by this Ordinance or that is not required to be regulated by Statutes or Regulations, including rules to regulate the conduct of business and the time and place of meetings and related matters.

(2) Rules shall become effective upon approval by the Syndicate.

CHAPTER VI

INSTITUTE FUND

30. Institute Fund.—The Institute shall have a fund to which shall be credited its income from fees, charges, donations, trusts, bequests, endowments, contributions, government grants and all other sources.

31. Audits and accounts.—(1) The Accounts of the Institute shall be maintained in such form and in such manner as may be prescribed.

(2) The teaching departments, constituent colleges or institutes and all other bodies designated as such by the Syndicate in terms of Statutes shall be independent cost centres of the Institute with authority vested in the head of each cost centre to sanction expenditure out of the budget allocated to it:

Provided that re-appropriation from one head of expenditure to another may be made by the head of a cost centre in accordance with and to the extent prescribed by the Statutes.

(3) All funds generated by a teaching department, constituent college or other unit of the Institute through consultancy, research or other provisional service shall be made available without prejudice to the budgetary allocation otherwise made, after deduction of overheads in the manner and to the extent prescribed by Statute, to the teaching department, constituent college or other unit for its development. A part of the funds so generated may be shared with the Institute Teachers or researchers in charge of the consultancy, research or service concerned in the manner and to the extent prescribed by Statute.

(4) No expenditure shall be made from the funds of the Institute, unless a bill for its payments has been issued by the head of the cost centre concerned in accordance with the relevant statutes and the Treasurer has verified that the payment is provided for in the approved budget of the cost centre, subject to the authority to re-appropriate available to the head of the cost centre.

(5) Provision shall be made for an internal audit of the finances of the Institute.

(6) Without prejudice to the requirement of audit by an auditor appointed by Government in accordance with the provisions of any other law in force, the annual audited statement of accounts of the Institute shall be prepared in conformity with the Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP) by a reputed firm of chartered accountants and signed by the Treasurer. The annual audited statement of accounts so prepared shall be submitted to the Auditor-General of Pakistan for his observations.

(7) The observations of the Auditor-General of Pakistan, if any, together with such annotations as the Treasurer may make, shall be considered by the Syndicate and shall be placed before the Senate within six months of closing of the financial year.

CHAPTER VII

GENERAL PROVISIONS

32. Opportunity to show cause.—Except as otherwise provided by law no officer, teacher or other employee of the Institute holding a permanent post shall be reduced in rank, or removed or compulsorily retired from service for cause arising out of any act or omission on the part of the person concerned unless he has been given a reasonable opportunity of showing cause against the action proposed to be taken.

33. Appeal to the Syndicate and the Senate.—Where an order is passed punishing any officer (other than the Vice-Chancellor), teacher or other employee of the Institute or altering or interpreting to his disadvantage the prescribed terms or conditions of his service, he shall, where the order is passed by any officer or teacher of the Institute other than the Vice-Chancellor, have the right to appeal to the syndicate against the order, and where the order is passed by the Vice-Chancellor, have the right to appeal to the Senate.

34. Service of the Institute.—(1) All persons employed by the Institute in accordance with the terms and conditions of service prescribed by statutes shall be persons in the service of Pakistan for the purposes of any court or tribunal set up by law in terms of Article 212 of the Constitution of the Islamic Republic of Pakistan. 1973:

Provided that any provision as regards the terms and conditions of employment of persons in the service of Pakistan in general or in comparable employment notwithstanding the service of persons employed by the Institute shall be entirely governed by the terms and conditions prescribed by the relevant Statutes.

(2) An officer teacher or other employee of the Institute shall retire from service on the attainment of sixty years age or tenure of service as may be prescribed.

(3) No adverse change shall be made in the terms and conditions of employment of any Institute Teacher/staff member in the employment of the Institute on the date of enforcement of this Ordinance.

35. Benefits and insurance.—(1) The Institute shall constitute for the benefit of its officers, teachers and other employees scheme, as may be prescribed, for the provision of post-employment benefits as well as health and life insurance while in service.

(2) Where any provident fund has been constituted under this Ordinance, the provisions of the Provident funds Act, 1925 (XIX of 1925), shall apply to such funds as if it were the Government Provident Fund.

36. Commencement of term of office of members of Authority.—(1) When a member of a newly constituted Authority is elected, appointed or nominated, his term of office, as fixed under this Ordinance, shall commence from such date as may be prescribed.

(2) Where a member who has accepted any other assignment or for any other similar reason remains absent from the Institute for a period of not less than six months he shall be deemed to have resigned and vacated his seat.

37. Filling of casual vacancies in Authorities.— Any casual vacancy among the members of any Authority shall be filled as soon as conveniently may be, in the same manner and by, the same person or Authority that had appointed the member whose place has become vacant and the person appointed to the vacancy shall be a member of such Authority for the residue of the term for which the person whose place he fills would have been a member.

38. Flaws in the constitution of Authorities.— Where there is a flaw in the constitution of an Authority, as constituted by this Ordinance, the Statutes or the Regulations on account of the abolition of a specified office under the Federal Government or because an organization, institution or other body outside the Institute has been dissolved or has ceased to function, or because of some other similar reason, such flaw shall be removed in such manner as the Senate may direct.

39. Proceedings of Authorities not invalidated by the vacancies.— No act, resolution or decision of any Authority shall be invalid by reason of any vacancy on the Authority doing, passing, or making it or by reason of any want of qualification or invalidity in the election, appointment or nomination of any de facto member of the Authority, whether present or absent.

40. Transitory provisions.—Notwithstanding anything contained in the Ordinance, upon the coming into force of this Ordinance with respect to an Institute, the Senate shall be restructured and the members thereof, except the Institute Teachers, appointed afresh by the Chancellor in accordance with the numbers and criteria for membership specified in the Ordinance. As regards the Institute Teachers to be elected or appointed to the restructured Senate elections shall be held as soon as possible in the case of Institutes where the repealed act, ordinance or other legislative instrument had provided for the election of Institute Teachers to the Senate. In all other cases Institute Teachers shall be appointed to the restructured Senate by the Chancellor. The number of Institute Teachers to be elected or appointed to the restructured Senate shall be as provided in the Ordinance. The first restructured Senate so constituted shall initiate, as soon as possible, the process for the appointment of the members of the Syndicate and the Academic Council in accordance with the terms of this Ordinance. The term of tenure provided in sub-section (4) of section 17 notwithstanding, one-third of the members, other than ex officio members, of the first restructured Senate, to be determined by lot, shall retire from office on the expiration of one year from the date of appointment by Chancellor. One-half of the remaining members, other than ex officio members, of the first restructured Senate, to be determined by lot, shall retire from office on the expiration of two years from the date of appointment and the remaining one-half, other than ex officio members, shall retire from office on the expiration of the third year.

(2) Any existing provision as regards tenure notwithstanding the Vice-Chancellor and the other Authorities, in existence immediately before the date on which the Ordinance is enforced with respect to an Institute listed in the Schedule, shall continue to function and shall, as far as may be exercise the powers respectively assigned to the Vice-Chancellor and corresponding Authorities by or under this Ordinance, until such time as they are respectively replaced in accordance with the terms of the Ordinance.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Ordinance, as regards a Institute set up after the promulgation date hereof, the members of the first Senate, except the Institute Teachers, shall be appointed by the Chancellor in accordance with the numbers and criteria for membership specified in the Ordinance. The first Senate so constituted shall initiate, as soon as possible, the process for the recruitment of Institute Teachers and appointment of the members of the Syndicate and the Academic Council in accordance with the terms of this Ordinance. Institute Teachers to be appointed to the first Senate shall be appointed as soon as the procedure prescribed for appointment of Institute Teachers to the Senate has been complied with. The terms of tenure provided in sub-section (4) of section 17 notwithstanding, one-third of the members, other than ex officio members, of the first Senate, to be determined by lot, shall retire from office on the expiration of one year from the date of appointment by the Chancellor. One-half of the remaining members, other than ex officio members, of the first Senate, to be determined by lot, shall retire from the office on the expiration of two years from the date of appointment and the remaining one-half, other than ex officio members, shall retire from office on the expiration of the third year.

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Ordinance, as regards a Institute set up after the promulgation date hereof, the first Vice-Chancellor shall be appointed by the Chancellor for a period of three years.

41. Indemnity.—No suit or legal proceedings shall lie, against the Federal Government, the Institute or any Authority, officer or employee of the Government or the Institute or any person in respect of any thing which is done in good faith under this Ordinance.

42. Power to allow appointment of employees of the Government, other universities or educational or research institutions to the Institute.—

(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Ordinance the Senate may, on the advice of the Syndicate, allow any post in the Institute to be filled by appointment, on such terms as the Senate may specify, an employee of the Government or any other Institute or educational or research institution.

(2) Where any appointment has been made under this section, the terms and conditions of service of the appointee shall not be less favourable than those admissible to him immediately before such appointment and he shall be entitled to all benefits of his post of service.

43. Removal of difficulties.—(1) If any question arises as to the interpretation of any of the provisions of this Ordinance, it shall be placed before the Chancellor whose decision thereon shall be final.

(2) If any difficulty arises in giving effect to any of the provisions of this Ordinance, the Chancellor may make such order after obtaining the views of the Senate, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Ordinance, as may appear to him to be necessary for removing the difficulty.

(3) Where this Ordinance makes any provision for anything to be done but no provision or no sufficient provision has been made as respects the authority by whom, or the time at which, or the manner in which, it shall be done, then it shall be done by such authority, at such time, or in such manner as the Chancellor may direct after obtaining the views of the Senate.

44. Repeal and Savings.—(1) The Planning and Development Division's Resolution No. 15(3)Ad.II/PD/80, dated the 12th December, 1981, is hereby repealed.

- (2) Notwithstanding the repeal envisaged by sub-section (1),—
- (a) everything done, action taken, obligations or liabilities incurred, rights and assets acquired, persons appointed or authorized, jurisdiction or powers conferred endowments, bequests, funds or trusts created, donations or grants made, scholarships, studentship, or exhibitions instituted, affiliations or privileges granted and orders issued under any of the provisions of the repealed Resolution, or the Statutes, the Regulations and the Rules made or deemed to have been made thereunder, shall, if not inconsistent with the provisions of this Ordinance or the Statutes, the Regulations or the Rules made under this Ordinance, be continued and, so far as may be, be deemed to have been respectively done, taken, incurred, acquired, appointed, authorized, conferred, created, made, instituted, granted and issued under this Ordinance, and any documents referring to any of the provisions of the repealed Resolution, or the Statutes, the Regulations and the Rules first referred shall, so far as may be, be considered to refer to the corresponding provisions of this Ordinance or the Statutes, the Regulations and the Rules made under this Ordinance;
 - (b) any Statutes, Regulations, or Rules made or deemed to have been made under the repealed Resolution shall, if not inconsistent with the provisions of this Ordinance, be deemed to be Statutes, Regulations or Rules made under, this Ordinance having regard to the various matters which by this Ordinance have to be regulated or prescribed by Statutes, Regulations and Rules respectively and shall continue to be in force until they are repealed, rescinded or modified in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIVES AND REASONS

The Pakistan Institute of Development Economics (PIDE), Islamabad was granted degree-awarding status by the Government of Pakistan vide Ordinance No. XXXIX of 2007 dated July 27, 2007. The said Ordinance was to be repealed on 7th November 2007.

2. The Provisional Constitution Order No.1 of 2007 came into force on 3rd November, 2007 and under Article 5 thereof, an Ordinance issued by the President which was in force immediately before the commencement of the Proclamation of Emergency on 3rd day of November, 2007, shall not be subject to any limitation as to duration described in the Constitution. Since the said Ordinance (XXXIX of 2007) was in force on 3rd November, 2007, therefore, under Article 5 ibid it was not subject to limitation of four months as provided in Article 89 of the Constitution. The Supreme Court of Pakistan has recently decided to refer such Ordinances to the Parliament.

3. It will be seen from Section 4 of the Ordinance that the main purpose of the Institute is to provide for education and scholarship in such branches of knowledge as it may deem fit, and to make provision for research, service to society and for the application, advancement and dissemination of knowledge in such manner as it may determine.

4. In order to achieve the objectives of the Institute, the PIDE started Ph.D classes in September 2000 and 10 (ten) candidates were awarded Ph. D degrees in Development Economics in the First Convocation of PIDE held on March 11, 2008. Presently, candidates have been enrolled in different disciplines as per enclosed statement.

5. The above enrolled candidates are in the middle of their study programmes. Therefore, it is necessary to establish and maintain the Pakistan Institute of Development Economics, Islamabad to achieve its objectives.

6. The Bill seeks to achieve the aforesaid objective.

MAKHDOOM SHAHABUDDIN,
Member-in-Charge.
