STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Through the instant Bill a long standing complaint of registration of false cases by the Police Authorities with malafide has been addressed and a penal provision has been inserted to take action against such police officers who with malafide intent registers false cases. Moreover, the sentence u/s 182 PPC has also been enhanced in order to discourage false registration of case on the part of the private parties. The police has also been bound to submit the final report u/s 173 within 14 days and the courts have also been bound to conduct day to day proceedings of the criminal trials and not to give more than five adjournment during the period of trial.

The proposed legislation will help in provision of speedy and inexpensive justice to the parties.
