STATEMENT OF OBJECT AND REASONS

Pakistan Bar Council and Law and Justice Commission of Pakistan (LJCP) have been instrumental in proposing amendments in the Legal Practitioners and Bar Councils Act, 1973. Input of these two esteemed organizations and after long deliberations with other stakeholders, it is agreed that there should be one date of holding elections of Provincial Bar Councils and Islamabad Bar Council. Moreover the seats of membership of the Punjab Bar Council are required to be divided amongst the old and newly created Districts. A new provision of passing an assessment test by a law graduate for enrolment as an advocate is being added to ensure intake of quality lawyers in the profession. Similarly, role of Pakistan Bar Council in awareness, promotion and enforcement of human rights is being strengthened. Some other ancillary amendments proposed by these two organizations have also been incorporated in the Bill. Further, in order to make procedure for grant-in-aid simpler, section 57 is proposed to be substituted to empower the respective Law Minister to approve the grant-in-aid to a Bar Council or Bar Association.
