57. The provisions of this Act, shall be in addition to and not in derogation of the provisions of any other law for the time being in force and, in case of any inconsistency, the provisions of this Act shall have overriding effect on the provisions of any law to the extent of the inconsistency.

58. Prevention of Trafficking in Persons Act, 2018 ACT NO. XXXIV OF 2018 shall stand repealed after the passage of this Act.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Trafficking in human beings is one of the largest organized crime violating basic human rights. Trafficking in human beings may be for sexual and physical exploitation and also for other forms of exploitation like forced labour, etc. This is primarily fueled by poverty, illiteracy and lack of livelihood options. Majority of the Trafficking is within the country. However, there are instances where large number of persons are trafficked from neighboring countries and to other countries especially Middle East.

2. Presently, the subject matter of trafficking of persons is dealt with under the provisions of the Pakistan Penal Code 1898 and Prevention of Trafficking in Persons Act, 2018 the former only defines and penalizes the offence of trafficking of persons and, whereas, the latter deals with trafficking of persons for the purpose of commercial sexual exploitation and it does not recognize trafficking of persons for the purpose of physical and other forms of exploitation. There is no comprehensive definition of human trafficking in existing laws as well. In the said bill adult males have also been included in definition of victims of human trafficking. Besides, we also need a new law which should counter the menace of all forms of human trafficking and prevalence of this alarming crime from cross border till local level with a single coordinated mechanism among all the stakeholders.

3. Keeping in view of the above deficiencies in the existing legislations and after considering the issues relating to prevention, rescue and rehabilitation of victims of trafficking, it has been considered necessary to bring a comprehensive legislation, namely, the Trafficking of Persons (Prevention, Protection and Rehabilitation) Bill, 2019, covering all related aspects of trafficking of persons.

4. The salient features of the Trafficking of Persons (Prevention, Protection and Rehabilitation) Bill, 2018, inter alia, are as follows:— (a) it aims to prevent the trafficking of persons, to prosecute offenders and to provide care, protection and rehabilitation to the victims of trafficking; (b) it creates a conducive legal, economic and social environment for the victims of trafficking and also addresses the transnational nature of the crimes; (c) provides for dedicated institutional mechanism at District, Province and National level for prevention, protection, investigation and rehabilitation aspects relating to trafficking; (d) it provides for new offences with stringent punishment and fine, which are aggravated in nature and not addressed in existing laws; (e) it provides for timely disposal of cases and repatriation of the victims; (f) it provides for the confidentiality of victims, witnesses and complainants by not disclosing their identity. The confidentiality of the victims is maintained by recording their statement through video conferencing and by in camera proceedings. (g) it also provides for Rehabilitation Fund for the welfare and rehabilitation of victims to ensure timely relief to the victims and also addresses their physical, mental trauma etc.; (h) in order to break the organized nexus, both at national and international level, the Bill proposes for attachment and forfeiture of property and to remit the proceeds of crime in the Rehabilitation Fund; (i) it also provides for immunity to victims for certain criminal actions against them; and (j) it is also proposed to designate a Sessions Court in each district for speedy disposal of the cases under the proposed legislation and for this purposes provides for appointment of Special Public Prosecutors to deal with such cases in a time bound manner.

5. The Bill seeks to achieve the above objectives.
