STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The Code of Civil Procedure (Amendment) Act, 2020 (Act No.VII) which was enacted on 21st February, 2020 and is applicable to the extent of Islamabad Capital Territory, Islamabad. A number of reservations had been raised by members of the Islamabad Bar Association, Islamabad Bar Council and District Judiciary regarding implementation of the 2020 Act. A consequential effect of amendments in the civil procedure is that the judges, lawyers and litigants are suffering as they are now required to litigate at two different courts. Each civil judge is hearing a main suit filed before his Court and simultaneously hearing injunction applications of other Courts. This practice had exacerbated the backlog of pending cases. Parties are forced to travel between Courts which are adding to their time and costs as well as their counsels. Deletion of right of revision under section 115 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 had contributed to excessive litigation before High Court under its constitutional jurisdiction further adding to cost and misery of parties falling prey to unintended consequences. In essence, the 2020 Act had defeated the purpose of quick access to justice, inexpensive, speedy and fair trial.

The Bill has been designed to achieve the aforesaid objectives.
