STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Whereas, loyalty to State is the duty of every citizen under Article 5 of the Constitution and whereas, the Majlis-e-Shoora (Parliament) of Pakistan enjoys sovereignty to frame laws on the Federal subjects, the obedience to the Parliamentary oversight has to be given ultimate importance. Parliamentary Committees act as extension of their respective Houses and such Committees not only give threadbare consideration to proposed legislation but also perform oversighting functions including conduct of public hearings.

At times, people do not appear before these Committees despite notices which not only undermines the respect of the Majlis-e-Shoora (Parliament) but also hampers proceedings of such Committees as well as redressal of public grievances. Entry 42 of the Federal Legislative List of the Fourth Schedule of the Constitution empowers Majlis-e-Shoora (Parliament) to make laws for the punishment, by a House, of persons who refuse to give evidence or produce documents before a Committee of a House, when duly required by the Chairman of the Committee to do so.

2. Therefore, there is a need to frame law providing for punitive measures against persons who are reluctant to comply with the directions of a House of the Majlis-e-Shoora (Parliament) or a Committee thereof. This Bill aims at condemning and awarding punishment for the actions that accounts for breach of the sovereignty and integrity of the prestigious House of the Majlis-e-Shoora (Parliament) in any form or shade.

3. This Bill seeks to achieve the above objectives.
