REPORT

Pakistan has had a chequered constitutional history. It took the country nine years after independence to frame the first Constitution. This was one of the longest periods taken for this purpose by any country. In 1954 the Assembly was dissolved by the Governor General without any constitutional mandate leading to instability in the political system. The Constitutions of 1956 and 1962 were abrogated. The Constitution of 1962 violated the democratic principle of one-man one-vote as well as adult franchise and finally, being a centralized federation with a unicameral legislature, it was a flawed Federal structure. The result was the tragic event of the separation of East Pakistan.

2. The 1973 Constitution was enacted in this back-drop of loss of a part of the country and consequent disillusionment and frustration. The nation salutes Shaheed Zulfiqar Ali Bhutto and all other political leaders and personalities both inside and outside parliament whose struggle contributed to the framing of the 1973 Constitution. This document, despite two military interventions, has stood the test of time and could not be abrogated. The essential features of 1973 Constitution are that it would be based on Islamic principles and be a Federal Parliamentary system with Provincial Autonomy in which fundamental rights and the independence of the Judiciary would be ensured.

3. Unfortunately the Constitution of 1973 was not implemented in letter and spirit and the democratic system got derailed at different times. The non-democratic regimes that took power sought to centralize all authority and introduce various provisions which altered the basic structure of the Constitution from a parliamentary form to a quasi Presidential form of Government through the 8th and 17th constitutional Amendments. Thus, the equilibrium established by the Constitution of 1973 was disturbed which weakened the democratic institutions and inter alia deprived the Provinces of their legitimate constitutional rights in governance and in utilization of their natural resources. It also resulted in the absence of rule of law, lack of confidence in the judicial system and distance between Provinces and Federation.

4. It was in this background that the Charter of Democracy was signed between Mohtarma Benazir Bhutto Shaheed and Mr. Muhammad Nawaz Sharif on 14th May, 2006. Subsequently an All Parties Conference was held in London and all the democratic forces continued their historic struggle for the democratic system and Provincial Autonomy. The dictators abortive attempt to retain power through extra-constitutional measures against the Judiciary was thwarted by the historic “rule of law” movement which enjoyed universal support at home and abroad. The momentum thus created led to the elections of February, 2008 and the eventual exit of Gen. (Retd) Pervez Musharraf.

5. The demands of amendments in the Constitution were raised by all political forces from time to time, in particular, it was stressed that there was a need for giving the Provinces autonomy, ensuring an independent and impartial Judiciary and equality in sharing of resources between Provinces and the Federation.
6. Therefore, with this objective in mind, the President of the Islamic Republic of Pakistan, Mr. Asif Ali Zardari, in his address to both Houses of Majlis-e-Shoora (Parliament) assembled together on 28th March, 2009, asked the Speaker, National Assembly of Pakistan, to constitute a Committee of both the Houses of Parliament, with representatives of all political parties and independent groups in both the Houses, for the purpose of proposing amendments in the Constitution in the light of Charter of Democracy (CoD).

7. Thereafter, the President wrote a letter to the Prime Minister on 9th April, 2009 calling upon the Government to take appropriate steps in this regard.

8. As a consequence, the National Assembly in its sitting held on 10th April, 2009, passed a Motion for constituting an All Parties Special Committee to recommend amendments in the Constitution in the light of the Charter of Democracy. The Motion also authorized the Speaker, National Assembly, to consult leaders of all Parliamentary Parties in this process and to provide guidelines to the Committee.

9. Similarly, the Senate of Pakistan in its sitting held on 29th April, 2009, passed a Motion authorizing the Chairman Senate to consult leaders of all Political Parties in the Senate to make nominations of such members to the said Committee being constituted by the Speaker, National Assembly.
10. In pursuance of the Motions adopted by the National Assembly on 10th April, 2009 and the Senate on 29th April, 2009, the Speaker, National Assembly, constituted the Special Committee of Parliament in consultation with the Parliamentary Leaders consisting of the following Members:

20. The Committee has also proposed amendments in various Articles of the Constitution dealing with Federal-Provincial relations. The intent of these amendments is to further strengthen the concept of federalism as enunciated in the Constitutional Accord of 1973 which subsequently finds expression as one of the basic principles of the 1973 Constitution along with provincial autonomy.

21. On the questions of Federalism and Provincial Autonomy, the Committee has built on the basic idea of the 1973 Constitution, in terms of Article 153 i.e. the Council of Common Interests, in order to promote joint supervision of Federal resources and collective dispute management, while providing a collective leadership to further strengthen the Federation.

22. The Committee held a total number of 77 meetings, with each meeting at an average lasting 5 hours, thus the Committee has spent about 385 hours during its deliberations. The Committee decided in its meeting on 18th August, 2009 that all its proceedings will be in-camera and that no press release of its functioning shall be issued unless specifically allowed by the Committee. The intent and purpose of this decision was to provide the Committee members an open, free and frank atmosphere to discuss issues pertaining to the Constitution, on which public debate has already taken place, so as to provide its Members an opportunity to take decisions based on their expertise and rising above party considerations.
27. As this Report will become a part of history, therefore, in my capacity as Chairman of this Committee, it is my responsibility and duty to bring on record the individual contribution of each member of this Committee. Without their farsightedness, political maturity, sagacity and rising above party affiliation, while keeping the greater national interest in view, the unanimity in decision making could not have been achieved, and thus the Constitution (18th Amendment) Bill, 2010 which is a unanimous proposal would have eluded Parliament and the Nation.

Re: Concurrent List (With item 5)

(1) The impression that there was no commitment by the founders of 1973 Constitution to omit concurrent list altogether or after ten years is not borne by any historical record including Parliamentary reports – neither expressly nor otherwise.

(2) Almost all the known and functional federations in existence since the last over 200 years have successfully and satisfactorily operated within the frame work of three lists of subject with concurrent list including substantial items of subjects.

(3) Pakistan and India inherited similar political culture and federal regime since 1935 which inter alia provided for concurrently held subjects.

India since 1950, having framed its Constitution has maintained three lists, with concurrent list containing 47 subjects. In fact through later Constitutional amendments subjects from Provincial lists have been transferred to concurrent list such as Forest, Trade in Commerce, particularly in the production, supply and distribution of Food stuffs, cattle fodder etc.

Likewise, Pakistan has throughout its federal history inspite of adopting three different constitutions, maintained the same pattern.

Omitting concurrent list altogether shall confront the country with innumerable problems including the over burdening of CCI, converting it into a Government within the Government; besides, conflict of interest between the Provinces on matters such as pollution and drugs etc.

(4) Due to our chequered and unfortunate Constitutional history democracy did not get a chance to mature and it is too early to take a quantum jump. And to depend upon the good will of four Provinces to work out between themselves and the Federation some sort of convention is a noble thought but seems to be a pious wish on which the federation cannot be risked.
Not providing the linkage (between the Federation and the Provinces) in respect to the following subjects would require allocating them to the federal list:

(i) Criminal Law (Item No.1 in the Concurrent List)
(ii) Bankruptcy and trusts (No.7 and No.10)
(iii) Arbitration (No.8)
(iv) Actionable wrongs, save in so far as included in laws with respect to any of the matters specified in the Federal Legislative List (No.12)
(v) Removal of persons and accused persons from one Province to another Province (No.13)
(vi) Persons subject to preventive detention under Federal authority (No.15)
(vii) Measures to combat certain offences committed in connection with matters concerning the Federal and Provincial Governments and the establishment of a police force for that purpose (No.16)
(viii) Prevention of the extension from one Province to another of infectious or contagious diseases or pests affecting men, animals or plants (No.22)
(ix) Environmental pollution and ecology (No.24)
(x) Population Planning and Social Welfare (No.25)
(xi) Boilers (particularly in relation to heavy industries including nuclear installation) (No.29)

It will be in national interest, consistent with our need for evolution of Federalism to retain essential items in Concurrent List and to continue with mechanism envisaged by Articles 142, 143 and 144 of the Constitution, as in future like what happened in case of other federations, concurrent list may be needed, or, and subjects may have to be shifted to the concurrent list from the federal list.

I therefore strongly feel that though some subjects can be transferred and should be transferred from Concurrent List to the Provincial List yet complete omission of the former will be inappropriate, impolitical and risky; and violative of one of the basic structures on which the 1973 Constitution was founded.

Parliamentary Committee on Constitutional Reforms
Subject: NOTE OF REITERATION.

Dear Mr. Chairman,

In the meeting held today i.e. 31.03.2010, the Parliamentary Committee on Constitutional Reforms (PCCR) was informed that PML (N) and ANP had come to an understanding for the renaming of the province of N.W.F.P. The name agreed upon is Khyber-Pakhtoonkhwa.

PML (Q) has not been involved in the discussions between the two parties. It has been our consistent stand that any change of name should reflect the aspirations of all segments of society in the N.W.F.P. The name suggested does not come up to the aspirations of the people of N.W.F.P. and is therefore, not acceptable to PML (Q).

It is our proposal that the province be named as The Province of SARHAD. This is for record.

With regards,

Yours Sincerely,

(Wasim Sajjad)

Subject: NOTE OF REITERATION.

Dear Mr. Chairman,

Article 239.:-

The procedure in the Constitution for creation of a new province is cumbersome. The procedure should be much simpler which may allow the parliament to change the boundaries of a province and the name in the more simpler and expeditious manner. I had suggested this as in future the redistribution of provinces into more provinces would be in the interest of Pakistan and the Federation but it was not agreed upon. For the purpose of record, I would like to place this note of reiteration on record.

With regards,

Yours Sincerely,

(S.M. Zafar)

Chairman,

Notes of Reiteration on the Constitutional Reform Package

Articles 246 & 247: Re: Tribal Areas and Administration of Tribal Areas

The Awami National Party in its written proposals to the Committee on Constitutional Amendments had recommended that articles 246 and 247 regarding Federally Administered Tribal Areas and Provincially Administered Tribal Areas be omitted so that the afore mentioned Tribal areas could be integrated into the mainstream and opened to legislation by the Parliament and governed under regular laws of the land.

The Party wants to reiterate its position and will continue struggling for it until this goal is achieved.

Articles 28: Preservation of languages, script and culture

The Party had proposed that in Article 28 “Subject to Article 251” should be deleted and would like to reiterate this position.

Articles 251: National Languages

Similarly in Article 251 in clause 1 the Party reiterates its recommendation that the article should be amended as follows and will continue to take the matter up till it achieves this objective:

“As lingua franca Urdu is the National language, and arrangements shall be made for its being used for official and other purposes while similar measures will simultaneously be taken for other National languages spoken in the country with in 15 years from the commencing day”

Article 73: Procedures with respect to Money Bill

The Party strongly upholds that the basis of any federation is participation of the federating units in policy formation especially in Money Bills. The elite of the most populous unit has dominated the federation right from its inception. This strangle hold must now be loosened by amending the procedures with respect to Money Bill so that all Money Bills including foreign assistance, raising of debt and monetary expansion are subject to mandatory approval of the senate in the way that the interest of all the Federation Units are protected.

Therefore, the Party reiterates its position on the recommendations it has given vis-à-vis Article 73.

Article 2 A: The Objectives Resolution to form part of substantive provisions

The Party had in its recommendations proposed that Article 2 A be deleted as its insertion by a Military dictator has damaged the spirit and intent of the 1973 Constitution. The Party reiterates its stated position and would continue to struggle for reverting the 1973 Constitution to its original form.

Articles 62 & 63: Qualification and Disqualification of Membership to Majlis-e-Shoora (Parliament)

The Party had in its recommendations proposed the following amendments in the said articles and reiterates its stated position:

Articled 62, shall be amended as follows:-

Sub clause (b) (i) shall read “any part of Pakistan, for election to a general or a special seat.”

The Party had in its recommendations proposed the following amendments in the said articles and reiterates its stated position and pledges to continue its struggle to ensure equality of rights for citizens:

Clause (1) shall be substituted with the words, namely:-

Note by
Justice (R) Abdul Razak A. Thahim of PML (Functional)

While reviewing of the Constitution in the earlier meetings I suggested that Article 182 of the Constitution be deleted. The views of the Honourable were taken but matter was differed by Chairman. Now it has been observed in draft of 18th Amendment of the Constitution placed before the Committee this matter has not been taken care and once again on 20-03-2010 I again reminded the Chairman to consider this matter which has already been discussed.

The Provision under Article 182 is with regard to appointment of ad-hoc Judges in Supreme Court, if at any time when it is not possible for want of quorum of Judges of Supreme Court or any other reason necessary to increase temporarily number of judges of the Supreme Court. The Adhoc Judge to be appointed who retired as judge of Supreme Court.

197. At any time when –

(a) the office of a Judge of a High Court is vacant, or

(b) a Judge of High Court is absent or is unable to perform the functions of

(c) for any reason it is necessary to increase the number of judges of High Court, the President may, in the manner provided in clause (1) of Article 193, appoint a person qualified for appointment as a Judge of the High Court to be additional judge of the court for such period as the President may determine, being a period not exceeding such period, if any, as may be prescribed by law.

In that case no provision to appoint retired judge of High Court as Additional Judge. No Additional Judge in High Court could be appointed who is not qualified.
Let me refer to Article 181 of the Constitution which reads as under:

181. (1) At any time when –

(a) the office of a Judge of the Supreme Court is vacant; or

(b) a Judge of the Supreme Court is absent or is unable to perform the functions of his office due to any other cause.

The President may, in the manner provided in clause (1) of Article 177, appoint a Judge of a High Court who is qualified for appointment as a Judge of the Supreme Court to act temporarily as a Judge of the Supreme Court.

Taking into consideration of both provisions of Article 181 and 182 that in case of shortage of Judges in the Supreme Court the Article 182 is invoked to appoint retired Judges of Supreme Court as ad-hoc Judges to be appointed. The same purpose could be served under Article 181 which also states that if Judge of Supreme Court is absent and to unable to perform his office due to any other cause the President may appoint sitting Judge of High Court qualified for appointment of Judge in the Supreme Court to act temporarily as a Judge of the Supreme Court.

In this case this purpose of shortage of the Supreme Court judges for want of the quorum will be served under Article 181 of the Constitution therefore Article 182 is redundant.

This matter was examined by the Supreme Court in Al-Jihad Trust Case in detail and in case of short order it is decided as under:

Para IV

That no adhoc judge can be appointed in Supreme Court while permanent vacancy exists.
It was further decided in short order that

In concluding part it has been decided

"(d) That ad-hoc Judges working at present in the Supreme Court either be confirmed against permanent vacancies in terms of Article 177 of the Constitution within the sanctioned strength or they should be sent back to their respective High Courts in view of above conclusion of the court."

In this case the ad-hoc Judges can not be appointed.

The Supreme Court immediately on announcement of judgment dated 20th March, 1996 took immediate action with regard to the 06 ad-hoc Judges out of which 02 Judges Mr. Justice Munir Ahmed Khan and Justice Mir Hazar Khan Khoso of the Supreme Court were not allowed to perform judicial duties:

"Whereby other Ad-hoc judges of the Supreme Court were asked by the Chief Justice not to perform their judicial duties till further order.

Out of the six Ad-hoc Judges, two judges Justice Munir Ahmed Khan and Justice Mr. Hazar Khan Khoso remained present in the premises of the Supreme Court but did not perform their judicial duties. The remaining four ad-hocjudges, Justice Shaikh Riaz Justice Bashir Jehangiri, Justice Mamoon Kazi and Justice Afrasiab did not turn up in the Supreme Court and some were sent to their respective High Courts and same were confirmed against permanent vacancies."
It may be further noted Article 179 of the Constitution whereby the Judges of Supreme Court hold office until he attains the age of 65 year or unless he resign from the office.

In that case the appointment of retired Supreme Court Judge after 65 years impliedly is re-employment which is not approved by Supreme Court in the Judges Case of Al-Jihad Trust. The Supreme Court in case of necessity do so with many options.

(a) The sitting judges of High Court qualified to be judges Supreme Court as mentioned in Article 181 of the Constitution be taken rather reappointed retired Supreme Court Judge in Supreme Court.

(b) The matter has already been settled in Judges case Al-Jihad Trust that no Ad-hoc Judges to be appointed. This judgment of Supreme Court is still hold in the field and not reviewed.

(c) It is also in the interest of the judiciary that re-employment of Supreme Court Judges should be discouraged after retirement. If this however there is necessity the strength of judges of Supreme Court should be increased as laid down in Article 176 of the Constitution.

The President can increase the strength till passed the act of Parliament.

For the reasons stated above I once again reiterate that for future this provision under Article 182 be deleted.

Justice (R) Abdul Razak A. Thahim of PML (Functional)

President Pervez Musharraf on the 27th October, 2002 issued Chief Executive Order No. 24 of 2002 known as "LEGAL FRAME ORDER 2002. According to this order amendments were made in article 51, 58, 59, 62, and 63-A, 70, 71, 73, 75, 101, 106, 112, 171, 193, 195, 199, 203-C, 209, 218, 224, 243, 260, 268, and 270-A, 270-B and some articles were added to the 6th schedule Constitution. According to this LEGAL FRAME ORDER the elections were held.

Subsequently Majlas-e-Shora passed 17th amendment. It is reported in Gazette of Pakistan in December, 31st 2003, it became the act of the Parliament.

In this 17th amendment article 41, 58, 112, 152-A, 179, 195, 243, 268 and 270-AA were passed.

This entire situation has been reviewed by the Parliament Committee and it has been suggested that these articles in the Constitution which were amended be repealed.

By discussion some of the members were of the view that first of all amended articles to be repealed. Now in the draft of amendments of the 18th Constitution, some articles, which are the part of the Constitution and passed out the Majlas-e-Shora, have been repealed. Though in so many articles action already taken in reality that increase Members of National Assembly, Members of Provincial Assembly and Senate Members were have become part of the Constitution. I can not understand that the ego of the first these amendments as provided in 17th of Constitution amendments to be repealed and against same provisions to be enacted. The same articles have been introduced. This ego is against the spirit of the democracy that first identical article, which have been part of the present Constitution to be repealed and against same article to be introduced in 18th Amendments Bill 2010.

This will create so many complications and problems. The numbers of seats in Senate and Assemblies be first decreased and again introduced. There is no sense by doing this.

Note of Dissent / Re-iteration.

In my capacity as Deputy Convener, Parliamentary Group Leader of Mutahida Qaumi Movement in the National Assembly of Pakistan and member of the Constitutional Reforms Committee, I request that following note of dissent/reiteration may kindly be brought on record on behalf of party representatives of MQM:-

1) The Mutahida Qaumi Movement is of the considered view that the salvation of Pakistan lies in a provincially autonomous system of federalism, so as to achieve the objectives stated above.

2) While we record our note of dissent/reiteration, in respect of all amendments which have not been made in line with the proposals which have already been submitted by us and discussed from time to time, in particular the items mentioned below, it needs to be stressed without any ambiguity that in the larger interest of the country and good governance we have agreed to the proposals finalized by the committee on constitutional proposals, which have been brought about through consensus building.

3) The following items are worthy of mention:-

a) It is correct that sales tax on services have been reserved for the provinces but that was in fact provided within the scheme of the original constitution. The ethos of a federal constitution based upon a true provincial autonomy would imply creating fiscal and financial autonomy for the provinces in the true sense. This would have required the levy of sales tax on goods (Item 49 of the Federal Legislative List) to have been transferred to the provinces as was the case under the then Government of India Act 1935, so also under the present Indian Constitution. Mutahida had even gone to the extent to agreeing to contribute a fixed percentage to the federation of the revenue derivable from sales tax on goods by the province of Sindh, so as to meet major expenditures. And in this regard Mutahida was even agreeable to provide for a substantive clause in the constitution, provided parity was maintained between the provinces with regard to consumption and production for the purposes of sales tax revenue on goods. Despite Mutahida’s stance on sales tax on goods, the committee has decided to leave the power to raise revenue in this regard with the federation;

b) Article 25 of the constitution debars discrimination. Article 2-A of the constitution has made the Quran/Islamic Shariyah to be a substantive part of the constitution, which in turn prohibits discrimination, in keeping with the salutary principles of equality, the first part of Article 27 provides for distribution and allocation of state employment on merit without being influenced by any religious or cultural ethnicity. However, the proviso to the said Article 27 provides that for a particular time limit there could be discrimination in respect of state employment so as to facilitate people from backward classes/areas. Unfortunately, respective governments have extended the time limits provided in the proviso to Article 27 from time to time. This has given rise to the use of the said proviso to provide for the quota systems on exploitative lines, crushing the paradigms of merit and have also resulted in conflicting decisions of the Supreme Court of Pakistan. Mutahida is of the considered view that the time has come that the substantive provisions of Article 27 should no longer be dispensed with and the proviso to the said Article 27 be deleted with finality, so that all state employments are filled on merits, which is rather the need of the hour;

A new third proviso being proposed in the same article is also discriminatory and will only add another potential tool of exploitation in the hands of the executive of the country. Hence we oppose it also.

c) Under the present dispensation excise duty on both services and goods are leviable by the federation, (Item 44 of the Federal Legislative List) ideally, like sales tax on both services as well as goods, the authority to impose excise duty both on services as well as goods should also be conferred upon the provinces, however, at least for the time being suitable amendments arrangements are required to be made so that excise duty on services are imposable by the provinces rather than the federation.

d) Item 21 on Major Ports in Federal Legislative List.

MQM is for complete Provincial Autonomy, as prescribed by the Pakistan Resolution passed on March 23rd 1940 by the forefathers of Pakistan.
Keeping the above view in mind MQM considers the item 21 of the Fourth Schedule, Federal Legislative List Part 1 should be devolved to the lowest level of the government.

21st Century is the century of empowerment of people. Devolution is the only solution. In the modern concepts of good governance, the developed countries have devolved almost all subjects up to the level of local governments and have opted the role of regulator rather than the role of executer or the implementer. MQM wants all the Ports devolved to the provinces initially and then onwards up to the level of local governments.

Though some headway is being made through the 18th Amendment to shift major parts from Part I of the Federal Legislative List to Part II of the Federal Legislative List, but we believe this is still very far from satisfactory from the point of view of the aspirations of our constituents and our stated position on this issue.

e) Amendment in Article 37.

The principle that a person is innocent unless proved guilty is a universally accepted norm and all civilized countries have adopted this principle as a part of its criminal jurisprudence.

Human Rights Charter of United Nations, European Charter of Human Rights and many similar charters insist for such rights being included in the laws or the Constitutions.
Recently United Kingdom has in its Human Rights Act of 2006 have contained the same provision. We agreed to add Clause (d) to Article 37 in the chapter on STATE Policy, which was unanimously accepted.

Later on the amendment was tried to be compromised through another amendment an ultimately withdrawn which shows a lack of political will on part of our Committee on this very important subject so this note of reiteration on this withdrawal.

f) The role of overseas Pakistanis in economic growth in Pakistan is unavoidable. To involve overseas Pakistanis into our national development, it is essential to restore their confidence in our system. And to make this happen it is absolutely important to involve them in the political and democratic process in Pakistan. Thus there is a need to create a few seats for the overseas Pakistanis in the lower house of the Parliament as well as in four provincial legislatures through making amendments in Article 51 and 106.

MQM moved an amendment to this effect but the same was turned down.

MQM’s faith in the potential of overseas Pakistanis in steering Pakistan towards progress and prosperity compels its representative in Constitutional Reforms Committee (CRC) to move a note of reiteration of its policy on this.
So this note of reiteration is offered to be made a part of the Parliamentary record.

NOTE OF REITERATION

Senator Prof. Khurshid Ahmad (Jamaat-i-Islami Pakistan)

I would like to place on record my profound appreciation and gratitude to all the members of this Committee and particularly its Chairman, Senator Mian Raza Rabbani for their constructive role and cooperative spirit. The recommendations of this Committee are of a historic nature and I fully endorse them. However, there are a few points where I was not able to convince my colleagues, and as such record them here in this note of reiteration:

i. Article 25: A new clause has been added to acknowledge education as a Constitutional Right. This is a very positive addition of far-reaching consequences. However, I wanted a time-limit (10 years) for the initial implementation of this right. I want to reiterate that this clause of the constitution should be implemented with fullest commitment and it must not remain a mere directive principle of state policy.

ii. I had moved for the deletion of Article 45, or at least the addition of the following proviso:

"Provided that the President would not exercise this power in cases of punishments awarded under Hudood or Qisas"

There is a clear command of the Shariah in respect of punishments given under Hudood and Qisas, and as such no remission can be given in respect of these by any human authority.
iii. Article 51: The addition of reserved seats for Non-Muslims in the Senate, in my view, is against the principles of fair representation. Members of the Senate are elected by the Provincial Assemblies on the basis of proportionate representation. There is no reason why Non-Muslims can not be elected through this process. Presently Senate has two members of the minority community. Any one can be elected on Senate’s general, technocrat’s or women’s seats.

The constitution, as it stood on 12th October, 1999 gave representation to the minorities on the principle of separate electorate. But on the insistence of the minorities this was changed, as they wanted to be elected on the basis of the system of joint electorate. Once this principle was accepted there can not be any justification for separate representation of minorities on the basis of reserved seats. In fact, under the system of separate electorate Non-Muslims had the right to elect their own representatives. Under the reserved seat system Non-Muslims are not selecting their own representatives. This only gives extra representation to major parties in the name of minorities. Once the principle of joint electorate is adopted there can not be any justification for giving dual representation to any particular community. These seats cannot be claimed by the minorities on the basis of the “deprived group argument”. They are not. They are equal citizens and must not seek a privileged position. They cannot have their cake and eat it too.

iv. Articles 89 and 128: While I endorse the amendment in these articles, in principle, I am opposed to the very concept of legislation by ordinance. Executive does not enjoy this power in most of the democratic countries of the world. It is a legacy of the colonial rule and we should put an end to it.

v. Article 91 (Clause 4): The Cabinet, Governors and Ministers of State should be collectively responsible to the National Assembly and the Senate. I wanted “the Senate” to be added after National Assembly and I re-affirm that in the best interests of the federal character of our state, the Prime Minister and the Cabinet must be responsible to the Senate as well.
vi. Article 175 A. I very strongly feel that the Attorney General’s inclusion in the Judicial Commission is totally uncalled for. The Law Minister is already there. Attorney General is the highest law officer of the Government. He has to appear before the Courts to represent the Government. He cannot be a neutral player as is required in a Commission like this. I, therefore, place on record my disagreement to this part of the recommendation.

vii. Article 240. I had raised the issue of constitutional Guarantee in case of civil servants as was available in the 1956 Constitution. Its removal has made the civil service more vulnerable to political pressure. De-politicization of the civil services is a must for good governance. This calls for a total change in the attitude and mind-set of the political leadership who has been primarily responsible for politicization of the civil services. A constitutional guarantee can at least strengthen the position of those civil servants who want to honestly follow the Constitution, the law of the land and the rules of business in letter and spirit, maintaining professional integrity and political neutrality.

viii. Article 243: I had moved that the four key appointments under this article should be non-renewable. In fact, I had proposed that all tenured appointments whether for civil authorities e.g. Chairman and Members of the Public Service Commissions, Chief Election Commissioner etc. or Chiefs of the Armed Services should not be renewable. The duration of their tenure could be revisited e.g. it may be increased to four years; but it should not be extendable. This would ensure greater integrity and transparency in these institutions.

I hope the Parliament will consider this issue in the future.

ix. In the revised Federal Legislative List (Part 2), I had moved that CCI should play a coordinating role to promote a uniform system of education in the country. This is important to ensure National identity and solidarity amongst all the members of the Pakistani society. For this purpose uniform national curriculum is a must. The provinces should play a role in the formulation of educational policy and curriculum, but uniformity of national educations is crucial to national solidarity. Education must remain a provincial subject, but there should be effective coordination and harmonization, in the best interests of national solidarity and quality of education, without, in any way, impairing genuine diversity.

I place this on record in the hope that the CCI may through mutual consultation and agreement take care of this important dimension.

I had moved that in Article 251 the following should be added:

"Strict implementation of this Article should be achieved within the next five years with yearly implementation report to the two Houses of the Parliament"

This is essential to remedy the criminal neglect shown by all the Governments in the past by not seriously and sincerely implementing the introduction of the national language as official language at all levels as laid down in this article.

There are four more points that I would like to place on record, as I raised them during the discussion but we could not arrive at consensus thereon:

a. In my view Senate should be a directly elected body. This election should take place on the basis of proportional representation. The Senate should have equal role in the election of the Prime Minister, and the Government should be responsible to both the houses of the Parliament. The Senate should also have equal role in the adoption of the finance Act and money bills.

b. I proposed that appointments to major public corporations and federal authorities as, well as appointment of non-career diplomats should be ratified by a Parliamentary Committee consisting of 08 members of the Parliament, 04 from the National Assembly and 04 from the Senate, and 04 each representing Government and the Opposition.

c. I had also moved that all International Treaties, Agreements and Conventions should be ratified by the Parliament (both Houses) or at least by the Senate.
d. I think appropriate amendments are needed to ensure that no person shall be given in foreign custody from Pakistani soil, citizen or visitor, in the custody of a foreign country without the permission of the High Court of the province. This should be a constitutional guarantee, over and above any provision in the extradition law.

e. I raised the issue of oath for Advisors appointed under the Constitution as Advisors to the Prime Minister. These Advisors have access to all official secrets. They also attend the meetings of the Cabinet and can participate in the proceedings of both the Houses of the Parliament. Every member of the Cabinet and every member of the Parliament work under oath. Not these advisors. This is a major lacuna in the Constitution and must be rectified by prescribing the same oath for these Advisors as is provided in the Constitution for the Ministers.

This may be incorporated in Article 10 or at other appropriate place.

March 25, 2010.
Note of Reiteration

1) Entry 21 from Federal Legislative List may be deleted.

2) Article 251 - Balochi, Sindhi, Pushto, Punjabi and Saraiki should be the national languages.

3) Article 156 - In the National Economic Council, number of members from the Federal and the provinces should be equal.

4) Article 73 - The Money Bill, including the Finance Bill containing the Annual Budget Statement should also be got approved/passed by the Senate.

NOTE OF REITERATION.

Dear Mr. Chairman,

I would like to thank the committee for accepting several recommendations made by the Pakistan Muslim League for amendments in the Constitution. I am particularly pleased that our recommendations for declaring right to education, right to information and right of fair trial as fundamental rights have been accepted. The Establishment of Islamabad High Court has also been accepted.

2. I am also grateful for the understanding shown by the committee by agreeing that certain provisions contained in the Charter of Democracy were impractical. The establishment of Constitutional court would have created immense problems in the functioning of the judicial system. Similarly, the method proposed for therein appointment of judges was too cumbersome and controversial and would not necessarily have resulted in appointments on merit.

3. It is a matter of satisfaction that most of the decisions of the Committee were taken by consensus. All political parties showed accommodation and understanding and adjusted their view points to arrive at agreed solutions. However, on certain matters it was considered necessary to reiterate the party position for purposes of record. It is in this context that the present letter is being written.

Article 223 – This Article permits election of a person from several seats at the same time. However, if he is elected to more than one seat, he is required to resign all his seats except one. This procedure could result in several bye-elections which are otherwise unnecessary. In a close electoral contest, difficulties would arise at the time of the election of the Prime Minister and Chief Minister as votes otherwise available to him would remain hanging in the balance until such time as the bye-electitions are held. It would be desirable if the right of a person to contest from several seats is curtailed.

Article 1 -- There was discussion on the question of the change of name of the province of N.W.F.P. We had stated at the very beginning that we would support the change of name but the new name should be one which reflects a broad consensus in the province.
The Pakistan Muslim League played a historical role at the time of referendum in 1947 which resulted in N.W.F.P. forming part of Pakistan. The Muslim League has strong roots in the province and its voice in this connection must be heard and given weight. We feel that this matter should not be decided on a unilateral basis.

Article 91 -- We were of the view that the Cabinet should be made responsible to the National Assembly and the Senate. This would give confidence to all the Provinces.

With regards,

Yours Sincerely,

(Wasim Sajjad)

Dear Sir,

It is submitted as under:-

That on the one hand I congratulate the Chairman and all the Honourable Members of Parliamentary Committee on Constitutional Reforms and the Democratic people of the Country on their success in reforming and democratizing the constitution:

   by declaring almost all dictatorial Acts of the Military dictators as Unconstitutional, Undemocratic and against the Parliamentary Democratic Federalism, particularly repealing the Legal Framework Order (LFO) and the 17 th Amendment, by guaranteeing the supremacy of the Parliament, Rule of Law, fundamental rights, Independence and impartiality of the Judiciary, by increasing the Provinicial Autonomy and enhancing Political, Economic, Financial and Administrative Power of the Provinces.

That on the other hand one feel said to note that the Committee was not able to make Pakistan as genuine Democratic Parliamentary Federation having a bicameral legislature as the Committee denied to the Senate its due power and say what-so-ever in vote of Confidence, No Confidence, Money Bills and Annual Budget Statement and even the National Languages Pashto, Balochi, Sindhi, Punjabi, Saraiki, and other Languages were not given their due Status.

NOTE OF REITERATION FROM PML(N)

NEED TO INCLUDE ITEM NO.38 IN FEDERAL LEGISLATIVE LIST PART-II

National and uniform curriculum and syllabus are prerequisites for building a united nation. Curriculum and syllabus should therefore be the joint responsibility of Federal and Provincial Governments in order to promote national integration and solidarity.

Consequent upon omission of the Concurrent Legislative List, PML(N) is of the view that item no.38 should be placed on the Federal Legislative List Part II so as to bring these matters within the purview of the Council of Common Interests.

Since this has not been agreed by the PCCR, PML(N) wishes to place its views on record, through this Note of Reiteration.

Article 175A: Appointment of Judges to the Supreme Court, High Courts and the Federal Shariat Court

The Parliamentary Committee on Constitutional Reforms (PCCR) had initially decided that the Judicial Commission of Pakistan, which would nominate one name for each vacancy of Judge to a Parliamentary Committee for confirmation, will consist of the following:

A. For Judges of the Supreme Court: (Main Commission)

(1) Chief Justice of Pakistan: Chairman
(2)&(3) Two senior-most Judges of the Supreme Court;
(4) Federal Minister for Law and Justice;
(5) Attorney-General for Pakistan;
(6) Senior Advocate of the Supreme Court to be nominated by the Pakistan Bar Council.

B. For Judges of the High Courts: (Enlarged Commission)

(7) Chief Justice of the High Court;
(8)* Senior-most Judge of that High Court;
(9) Provincial Minister for Law;
(10) one nominee of the Provincial Bar Council.

After details of the proposed procedure for appointment was released to the press by the PCCR, a large number of comments were made and opinions voiced regarding the procedure in the media, in seminars and in conventions etc by eminent jurists, lawyers and other members of civil society.

One of the major criticisms was that the procedure did not provide for a 3-3 deadlock in the main Commission or a 5-5 deadlock in the enlarged Commission. The PCCR took note of this issue and on the proposal of the PML(N) and others, decided to add a seventh member to the main Commission, viz a retired Chief Justice/Judge of the Supreme Court. PML(N) would have preferred that the said nomination be made by the Chief Justice of Pakistan. However, consensus in the PCCR was that the nomination be made by the main Commission.
Another proposal of the PML(N) was that the Federal Law Minister or the Attorney-General be dropped as the Government's point of view could be expressed in the Commission by either of them. PML(N) further proposed that the President, Supreme Court Bar Association be made a member of the main Commission, as envisaged in the Charter of Democracy.

PML(N) had also proposed that the four Presidents of the High Court Bar Associations should replace the nominees of the Provincial Bar Councils in the enlarged Commission.

Since these proposals were not accepted by the PCCR, PML(N) wishes to formally place its views on these important issues on the record of the deliberations of the PCCR, through this Note of Reiteration.

NOTE OF REITERATION

by

AFTAB AHMAD KHAN SHERPAO

Chairman Pakistan Peoples Party (Sherpao)

I wish to express my appreciation for the time and effort devoted by all members of this Committee which has led to a consensus being arrived at in the form of our final recommendations. Due to this very spirit of consensus with which we began our proceedings last year, I accept and support the final recommendations of this Committee. There is, however, an issue on which Pakistan Peoples Party (Sherpao) (hereinafter referred to as Party or PPP(S)) wishes to reiterate its stand.

This Committee, in its final recommendations, has proposed that Article 1 of the Constitution should be amended to change the name of the North West Frontier Province (NWFP) to “Khyber Pukhtunkhwa”. The people of the NWFP have for long genuinely demanded that the name of their Province should represent their cultural identity. Due to this at least two resolutions have been passed by the Provincial Assembly of the NWFP calling for the name of the Province to be changed to Pukhtunkhwa. I, having personally voted in favour of such a resolution, felt bound by it and thus took this matter to the Central and Provincial leadership of my Party to deliberate. After a lengthy debate PPP(S) came to the conclusion that the Party is bound by the resolution it voted for and would not support any other name for the Province. I completely agree with this decision and fully endorse it. I must stress at this point that all those political parties that voted in favour of the resolutions calling for the name of the Province to be changed to Pukhtunkhwa are bound by those resolutions and in the absence of a subsequent resolution to the contrary by the same Assembly, and in particular a resolution in favour. of the name Khyber Pukhtunkhwa, they cannot backtrack from their previous stance. Time and again we have seen the political parties of Pakistan demand that resolutions of provincial assemblies should be honoured. For this Committee to propose any other name for the NWFP than Pukhtunkhwa would amount to nothing less than dishonouring the resolutions of the highest legislative assembly of one of the units of the federation.

I also wish to emphasise that during the proceedings of this Committee nothing has been brought before us to show that there is now a change in the demand of the people of the Province to be named Pukhtunkhwa. Those proposing this name have not produced any evidence that shows that the residents of the NWFP have abandoned their demand to be named Pukhtunkhwa or there is now a fresh demand calling for the Province to be renamed Khyber Pukhtunkhwa. As I stated at the outset, I fully appreciate and respect the spirit of consensus with which we have all been working. However, being flexible to achieve consensus is one thing and making a mockery out of a genuine demand of the people of a federating unit is quite another. Every member of this Committee and every member of Parliament is fully aware of the resolutions passed by the NWFP Assembly which represent the aspirations of the people of the Province. If a few individuals, after a series of negotiations and compromises, choose to ignore those resolutions and suggest a name which they think is best for the Province; such actions should not be endorsed by this Committee or Parliament. This would amount to nothing less than imposing an unwanted name, much like the current one, on the people of the Province.

Finally, I would like to add that the name Pukhtunkhwa was chosen by and has popular support of the people of the Province due to its historical ties with this land. For centuries now this land has been referred to as Pukhtunkhwa by its inhabitants as well as outsiders. Its earliest recorded use is traced back to the 17th Century in the works of Akhund Darweza. More commonly known is its frequent use by Ahmad Shah Abdali to refer to this area in the 18th Century amongst countless other historical references. Thus this name was chosen because the people felt it would truly represent their cultural identity as the names of the other provinces do of their inhabitants. Anyone with a basic knowledge of the Pushtu language and Pukhtun culture would be able to tell that the name Khyber Pukhtunkhwa neither truly represents the cultural identity of the Province and its people nor does it make any sense.

Therefore, I reiterate my Party’s stand that if we are to genuinely fulfil a legitimate demand of the People of the NWFP the name of the Province should be changed to Pukhtunkhwa in accordance with the wishes of the people and the resolutions of the Provincial Assembly.

NOTE OF REITERATION

by

AFTAB AHMAD KHAN SHERPAO
Chairman Pakistan Peoples Party (Sherpao)

Further to my first Note of Reiteration I wish to clarify that I had submitted before this Committee a detailed report on behalf of Pakistan Peoples Party (Sherpao) (hereinafter “PPP(S)” or the “Party”) pertaining to the reform of our Constitution. Some of those recommendations have been graciously accepted while others have been rejected. Although, in the spirit of consensus, I do not wish to raise every single issue in Notes of Reiteration but I do wish to express my grave concerns and reservations on a matter that might seriously prove detrimental to Federation-Province relations.

This Committee has recommended that entry 34 (Electricity) of the Concurrent Legislative List should be transferred to Part II of the Federal Legislative List under the extraneous pretext that it will bring electricity within the jurisdiction of the Council of Common Interests (hereinafter “CCI” or “Council”). This Committee is very well aware that Article 154 of the Constitution, which sets out the functions and rules of procedure of the CCI, already provides for the Council to formulate policies for electricity “in so far as it is in relation to the affairs of the Federation”. If this Committee feels that this wording excessively limits the CCI’s jurisdiction to formulate policies for electricity than it would have been more appropriate to amend Article 154 of the Constitution rather than take a concurrent subject and transfer it to the Federation.

It has been my Party’s long standing demand that the Concurrent Legislative List should be abolished and all subjects therein transferred to the Provinces. One of the main reasons that the work of this Committee is being appreciated throughout the nation is because it has taken a progressive approach towards provincial autonomy and it has attempted to undo the wrongs of the past by fulfilling genuine demands of the Provinces. To take a subject from the Concurrent Legislative List and transfer it to the Federal Legislative List will undo all the goodwill this Committee and the Federation has earned. If anything, this Committee should have recommended that Electricity, along with numerous other subjects not already covered by the Recommendations, should be removed from the lists altogether and given to the Provinces.

It is simply not practical to move electricity to the Federal Legislative List in view of other provisions of the Constitution including Article 157 which gives the Provinces certain rights with regard to this subject. Furthermore, I apprehend this act will cause administrative and legislative difficulties in view of legislation already passed by Provincial Assemblies on this subject.

Finally, I would like to bring the Committee's attention to the fact that the legislative lists and electricity itself were controversial issues in 1973 as well. Due to their nature, these issues were handled with extreme caution by the then constituent assembly which after a series of negotiations led to the delicate balance that was struck in the form of the 1973 Constitution and in particular Articles 151, 157, 161 and the legislative lists. Concessions by the Federation on these issues led to the very consensus that was achieved then and which we seek to achieve today. At such a time in our history when our Federation faces numerous difficulties this Committee should not have recommended a change in these provisions of the Constitution that would be detrimental to the interests of the Provinces.
