

WORLD OPINION

- “The Indian Sub-Continent is perhaps the most dangerous place in the world today because of the tension over Kashmir.” (President Bill Clinton – March 10, 2000).
- “Kashmir is a nuclear flashpoint.” (Helen Clark, Prime Minister of New Zealand – October, 2004).
- “All of us remain concerned that the issue of Jammu & Kashmir should be solved through peaceful negotiations and should be willing to lend all the strength we have to resolution of this matter.” (Nelson Mandela, President of South Africa at the NAM Summit – September 2, 1998).
- “The question of plebiscite is still valid in Jammu & Kashmir and can be invoked for a permanent solution of the issue.” (Margaret Thatcher, Former Prime Minister – March, 1996).
- “The world has been reluctant to recognize the insurgency in Jammu & Kashmir as terrorism.” (Tony Blair – September 1, 2005).
- “We should probably try to facilitate a better understanding between Pakistan and India and try to resolve the Kashmir crisis so that they can stay focused not on India, but on the situation with those militants (in Afghanistan).” (Barack Obama – November 3, 2008)
