- (k) constitution and procedure to be followed by the Search Committee for appointment of the Rector;
- (l) constitution, functions and powers of the Authorities of the University; and
- (m) all other matters which by this Act are to be or may be prescribed.

28. Regulations.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Statutes, and any powers granted to it by the Senate, the Academic Council may make Regulations for the courses of study for degrees, diplomas and certificates of the University.

(2) In particular and without any prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, Regulations may be made for the following inter alia—

- (a) manner in which the teaching referred to in sub-section (1) of section 6 shall be organized and conducted;
- (b) admission and expulsion of students to and from the University;
- (c) conditions under which students shall be admitted to the courses and the examinations of the University and shall become eligible for the award of degrees, diplomas and certificates;
- (d) conduct of examinations;
- (e) conditions under which a person may carry on independent research to entitle him to a degree;
- (f) universities of fellowships, scholarships, exhibitions, medals and prizes;
- (g) use of the Library;
- (h) formation of Faculties, Departments and Board of Studies; and
- (i) all other matters which by this Act or the Statutes are to be or may be prescribed by Regulations.

(3) Regulations shall be proposed by the Academic Council and shall be submitted to the Senate which may approve them or withhold approval or refer them back to the Academic Council for reconsideration. A Regulation proposed by the Academic Council shall not be effective unless it receives the approval of the Senate.

29. Amendment and repeal of Statutes and Regulations.—The procedure for adding to, amending or repealing the Statutes and the Regulations shall be the same as that prescribed respectively for framing or making Statutes and Regulations.

30. Rules.—Subject to approval of the Senate, the Authorities and the other bodies of the University may make rules, consistent with this Act, Statutes or the Regulations, to regulate any matter relating to the affairs of the University which has not been provided for by this Act or that is not required to be regulated by Statutes or Regulations, including rules to regulate the conduct of business and the time and place of meetings and related matters.

CHAPTER VI

UNIVERSITY FUND

31. University Fund.—The University shall have a Fund to be called the Daanish University Fund to which shall be credited its income from fees if any, charges, donations, trusts, bequests, endowments, contributions, grants and all other sources.

32. Audits and accounts.—(1) The accounts of the University shall be maintained in such form and in such manner as may be prescribed.

(2) The teaching Departments, and Constituent Colleges and all other bodies designated as such by the Senate under Statutes shall be independent cost centres of the University with authority vested in the head of each cost centre to sanction expenditure out of the budget allocated to it:

Provided that re-appropriation from one head of expenditure to another may be made by the head of a cost centre in accordance with and to the extent prescribed by the Statutes.

(3) All funds generated by a Department, Constituent Colleges or other Units of the University through consultancy, research or other provision of service shall be made available without prejudice to the budgetary allocation otherwise made, after deduction of overheads in the manner and to the extent prescribed by Statute, to the teaching Department, Constituent College University or other Unit for its development. A part of the funds so generated may be shared with the University Professor or researchers in charge of the consultancy, research or service concerned in the manner and to the extent prescribed by Statute.

(4) No expenditure shall be made from the funds, unless a bill for its payments has been issued by the head of the cost centre concerned in accordance with the relevant statutes and the Director Finance has verified that the payment is provided for in the approved budget of the cost centre, subject to the authority to re-appropriate available to the head of the cost centre.

(5) Provision shall be made for an internal audit of the finances of the University.

(6) Without prejudice to the requirement of audit by an auditor appointed, the annual audited statement of accounts of the University shall be prepared in conformity with the Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP) by a reputed firm of chartered accountants and signed by the Director Finance.

(7) The observations of the Auditor if any, together with such annotations as the Director Finance may make, shall be placed before the Senate within six months of closing of the financial year.

CHAPTER VII

GENERAL PROVISIONS

33. University Procurement.—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Public Procurement Regulatory Authority Ordinance 2002 (XL of 2002), or any rules regulations or directives made thereunder, the University shall have the power to frame, adopt and administer its procurement policies, procedures and guidelines for the acquisition of goods, works and services.

(2) The provisions of Procurement Regulatory Authority Ordinance 2002 (XL of 2002) and any rules and regulations made thereunder shall not apply to any procurement made by the University under this Act.

34. Opportunity to show cause.—Except as otherwise provided by this Act, no full-time officer, teacher or other employee of the University shall be removed from office, reduced in rank, or compulsorily retired from office unless he is given a reasonable opportunity of showing cause against the action proposed to be taken.

35. Appeal to the Senate.—Where an order is passed punishing any officer other than the Rector, Teacher or other employee of the University or altering or interpreting to his disadvantage the prescribed terms or conditions of his service, he shall, where the order is passed by any officer or professor of the University other than the Rector, have the right to appeal to Rector against the order, and where the order is passed by the Rector, have the right to appeal to the Senate against the order.

36. Service of the University.—(1) All persons employed by the University in accordance with the terms and conditions of service prescribed by Statutes shall be persons in the service of the University.

(2) An officer, professor, or other employee of the University shall retire from service on the attainment of such age or tenure of service as may be prescribed.

37. Benefits and insurance.—The University shall constitute for the benefit of its officers, professors and other employees' schemes, as may be prescribed, for the provision of post-employment benefits as well as health and life insurance while in service.

38. Commencement of term of office of members of Authority.—(1) When a member of a newly constituted Authority is elected, appointed, or nominated, his term of office as fixed under this Act, shall commence from such date as may be prescribed.

(2) Where a member who has accepted any other assignment or for any other similar reason remains absent from the University for a period of not less than six months he shall be deemed to have resigned and vacated his seat.

39. Filling of casual vacancies in Authorities.— Any casual vacancy in any Authority shall be filled, as soon as conveniently may be, in the same manner and by the same person or authority which had appointed him and the person appointed to the vacancy shall be a member of such Authority for the residue of the term for which the person whose place he fills would have been a member.

40. Flaws in the constitution of Authority.—Where there is a flaw in the constitution of an Authority, as constituted by this Act, the Statutes or the Regulations on account of the abolition of a specified office or because an organization, universities or other body outside the University has been dissolved or has ceased to function, or because of some other similar reason, such flaw shall be removed in such manner as the Senate may direct.

41. Proceedings of Authorities not invalidated by vacancies.—No act, resolution or decision of any Authority shall be invalid by reason of any vacancy in the Authority doing, passing, or making it or by reason of any want of qualification or invalidity in the election, appointment or nomination of any de facto member of the Authority, whether present or absent.

42. Removal of difficulty.—(1) If any question arises as to the interpretation of any of the provisions of this Act, it shall be placed before the Senate whose decision thereon shall be final.

(2) If any difficulty arises in giving effect to any of the provisions of this Act, the Senate may make such order, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, as may appear to him to be necessary for removing the difficulty.

(3) Where this Act makes any provision for anything to be done but no provision or no sufficient provision has been made as respects the authority by whom, or the time at which, or the manner in which, it shall be done, then it shall be done by such authority, at such time, or in such manner as the Senate may direct after obtaining the views of, the Commission.

43. Indemnity.—No suit or legal proceedings shall lie against, the University, officer or employee of the University or any person in respect of anything which is done in good faith under this Act.

44. First Statutes.—Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, the Statutes set out in the Schedule shall be deemed to have been respectively framed or made under Section 27 of this Act, and shall remain in force until they are amended or replaced by new Statutes framed or made by the Senate in accordance with this Act and upon such replacement, the Statutes set out in the Schedule shall cease to have effect to the extent of replacement.
